The dumping of dirt, sand, rock, or other material excavated from the earth is permitted provided the surface of such material is graded within a reasonable time in a manner preventing the collection of stagnant water, and which leaves the ground surface in a condition suitable for the growing of turf or for other land uses permitted in a district.

1.85 Visibility at intersections. No wall, fence, shrubbery, trees, or obstructions shall be erected, maintained, or planted on any lot which unreasonably or dangerously obstructs or interferes with visibility of drivers or vehicles on a curve or at any street intersection, or where a driveway intersects street. Certificate of Zoning Compliance. No land shall be occupied or used and no building hereafter erected or altered shall be occupied or used in whole or in part for any purpose, until a certificate of zoning compliance shall have been issued by the Zoning Administrator stating that the premises or building complies with all the provisions of these regulations. Such a certificate is also required for any change, extension, or alteration in a use. Where an as-built certificate is required for construction, a final as-built certification must be submitted prior to issuance of a certificate of zoning compliance.

An application for a Certificate of Zoning compliance must be accompanied by a plot plan containing all the information necessary to enable the Zoning Administrator to decide whether the proposed building, alteration, addition, or use complies with all the provisions of these regulations. The plot plan shall be a Class A-2 survey map made by a Connecticut registered land surveyor, submitted in accordance showing all lot lines accurately indicated by stakes or markers, both on the map and on the ground, in order to determine compliance. The map shall include proposed construction, additions, and renovations with front yard, side yards, and rear yard, off-street parking, and accessory buildings, as required under this ordinance. The map shall also include zoning lot area, lot coverage, first floor elevations, existing sanitary sewer, storm sewer, and water main pipe and elevation if existing or proposed. The plot plan shall indicate whether the land in question is recorded in the Waterbury Land Records in a subdivision approved by the city plan commission or recorded by map or by deed in the Waterbury Land Records prior to August 12, 1943, indicating map book, page and date. The plot plan must also include an as-built certification by a licensed surveyor if a foundation is applied for. Approval by the health department for on-site sewage disposal is also required on the plot plan unless the site can and will be adequately served by the municipal sanitary sewer system. The plot plan include an estimate of quantities of earth material involved in each of the following activities: earth excavation, filling and/or grading, processing of earth material for reuse on site, stockpiling of earth material, importation of earth material, stockpiling of imported earth material and/or removal of earth material.

Notwithstanding the prior paragraph, an A-2 survey map is not required for a wall sign, a structure which is an ancillary to a residential use or an addition to a principal residential structure which increases the area of the footprint by 10% or less provided the following conditions exist:

- (1) The Zoning Administrator has sufficient information to determine zoning compliance.
- (2) Surveyors stakes or pins are visible in the field.
- (3) Any newly constructed, altered or relocated structure which is an ancillary to a residential use or an addition to a principal residential structure which increases the area of the footprint by 10% or less is located such that the zoning administrator can make a determination that said structure which is an ancillary to a residential use or an addition to a principal residential structure which increases the area of the footprint by 10% or less does not violate a required yard, setback or separation distance.
- (4) All earth excavation, filling and/or grading, processing of earth material for reuse on site, stockpiling of earth material, importation of earth material, stockpiling of imported earth material and/or removal of earth material involves a total quantity of no more than 500 cubic yards.

A record of all certificates shall be kept on file in the office of the Zoning Administrator, and copies shall be furnished upon request to any person having a proprietary or tenancy interest in the building affected.

Where the alteration does not require the vacating of the premises or where parts of the premises are finished and ready for occupancy before the completion of the alteration, or, in the case of a new structure, before its completion, a conditional certificate of zoning compliance may be issued.
